INDUSTRY SUPPLIER

Reapit IQ - powerful online learning management platform of the Reapit Training Academy

Reapit IQ covers the Reapit Training Academy curriculum through short training videos followed by a quiz after each section.

Online materials are developed by industry experts and available 24/7, which delivers the ability to track and consume online training with ease.

Reasons to love Reapit IQ:

Flexibility – Users can learn at their own pace through our learning videos which are available 24/7

Control – Users can take charge of their learning journey by tracking their progress as they go along

Interactivity – The learning videos are short (4 minutes on average), concise and designed to keep learners engaged

Validation – There are short quizzes designed to help users validate their learning and address any gaps

What our customers say

"I highly recommend Reapit IQ to Reapit customers. It's so easy to use, which reflects on the modern trend to keep it simple. It's also easy to find what you are looking for in Reapit IQ, hence it saves me a lot of time. Furthermore, the customer service at Reapit has been excellent with all our enquires regarding Reapit IQ, and they always respond promptly. I encourage all my staff to use the training platform, so they can get more familiar with the software."

Stan Tonchev – Associate Director, Kingsley Hamilton Estates

"We were attracted to the Reapit platform by its ease of use, and the excellent in-house training provided by Reapit."
